BOISSIER and Robert J. Jolicoeur, as Trustees for the Employees of Paine Webber, Inc., et al., Plaintiffs-Appellants, v. Robert E. WHITE, John A. Shaw, Jr., Robert F. McGee, et al., Defendants-Appellees. Supreme Court of Delaware. May 16, 1974. J. Dickinson Talbot of Richards, Layton & Finger, Wilmington, for plaintiffs-appellants. Arthur G. Connolly of Connolly, Bove & Lodge, Wilmington, for defendants-appellees. Before McNEILLY, C. J., and CAREY and HERRMANN, JJ., sitting. *534 HERRMANN, Justice: Plaintiffs, trustees for certain employees of Paine Webber, Inc., appeal from a summary judgment dismissing their derivative suit for alleged misconduct by the defendants as officers and directors of Paine Webber. The trial judge held that the complaint failed to state a claim for which relief could be granted, and further held that the notice of intention to bring the suit was not timely filed. We find no error. I. Paine Webber, Inc. is a Delaware corporation with its principal place of business in New York. It is engaged in the business of underwriting and distributing securities. It operates through one or more agencies. It is divided into two principal divisions, one in New York, and the other in California. The division in California operates as the Paine Webber Retail Group and the New York division as the Paine Webber Agency. The two divisions have complete autonomy in operations and management.
