Leather Basket with Ivy Design for Candles Ivy believe love can change a life? A little hope. is my love my destiny? Follow me along my journey as I hope to find that one person who is special enough to change my life. Ivy, the second of our two rescued German Shepherds, was a smelly, dirty little girl. Yet we raised her from a puppy into a purebred, loyal, and devoted companion and pack mate. I want Ivy to be an inspiration for anyone who wants the same luck in life. This book is a great way to tell your supporters what is happening in the rescue, what is being done, and how you are affected by the shelter. Where do you get your inspiration from? Ivy's Rescue Ivy's Foster Home Our Rescue Story The Little Book of Hope by Sully Parrett is a written account of the two years we spent as foster parents of Ivy and her family, as well as an inspirational tool to demonstrate the value of rescuing and saving animals. This is Sully's first book, but no stranger to inspiring minds. He is a well-known author with volumes of books, in addition to a well-known technology company, with a huge list of Youtube video views. For those people who aren't always in the right mood for the couch, the computer, or the heck with it, here's your chance to find comfort in a new, original book where life is the subject. Sully will present to you each day in a different way, to go into your heart, and tell you what you need to hear. You'll learn about: - owning a dog - children - peace - spirituality - compassion - love - your health - being a big brother - dying - giving - family - friendship - forgiveness - happiness - family And so much more! I am thrilled you will be in the first volume of this series of Inspirational books. I hope you will do me the honor of being a reader for the next book in this series. Sincerely, Sully Parrett Ivy's Foster Home Ivy and I began our life together when I got her from a shelter,
