SAM Broadcaster Crack.Lukas Podolski has indicated he could leave Arsenal for free in the summer – but he will not move to another Premier League club. Podolski, 29, joined Arsenal from Cologne in January 2011, and has scored eight goals in 29 appearances for the London club, having also spent a loan spell at Sampdoria in the last campaign. His future at the Emirates Stadium has been the subject of speculation in the German media for a while now, and he does not have a long-term contract to his name. However, he is firmly committed to remaining at the Gunners in his current form, and said he will decide on his next move in the summer. "When the time comes to decide (where I want to play) it will be a good chance to see and to make a decision," Podolski told Bild on Saturday. "I know that it is a very bad time for the Premier League, but in the summer there will be interesting things and it will be something good to talk about." "Arsenal have a big chance, we will continue in the Premier League and I know that my future is here," he added. "I really like it here. "It is not that
